

New York City Crime Analytics Board

Explore patterns by borough, offense type, and time to support urban safety decisions.

Crime Never Sleeps in NYC

From Brooklyn nights to weekday spikes, this dashboard maps the city’s pulse—where petit larceny leads, evenings stir trouble, and boroughs write different crime stories. Dive in, decode the data, and uncover patterns behind the headlines.

Next

View People Data

View Crime Map

Total Number of Crimes

604,141

Law Category Code

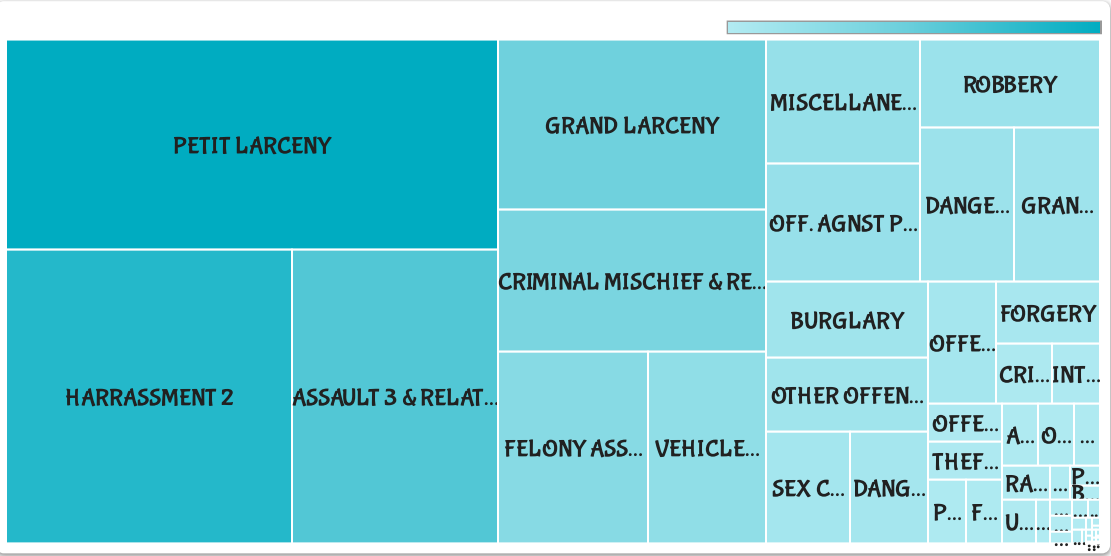

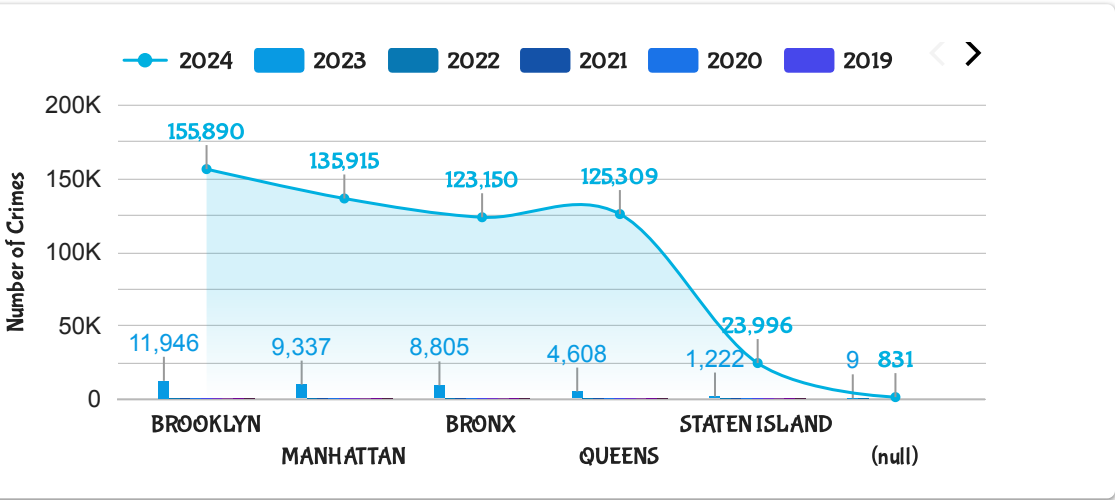

Borough Name

Offense Description

Year

Top Crime Categories Reported in NYC

Number of Crimes by Borough Name and Year

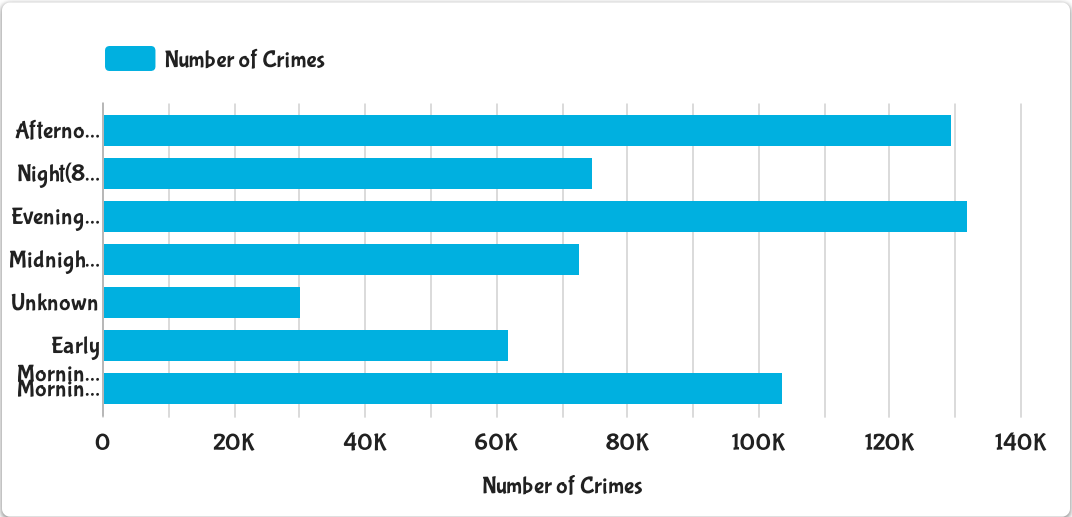

Crime Frequency by Weekday and Month

Weekday	January	February	March	April	May
Sunday	5,478	5,477	6,882	6,177	6,237
Monday	7,610	5,936	6,055	8,058	6,814
Tuesday	7,211	5,906	6,136	7,990	7,037
Wednesday	7,967	6,241	6,289	6,541	9,017
Thursday	6,337	7,807	6,355	6,390	8,676
Friday	6,587	6,628	8,276	6,980	8,940

Insight: "Petit Larceny and Harassment dominate NYC’s top reported offenses."

Crime Distribution by Time of Day

What’s Behind the Numbers? Crimes tend to rise during the evening, with summer months showing elevated risk.

New York City Crime Analytics Board

Understanding who is involved: A demographic perspective

Offense Description

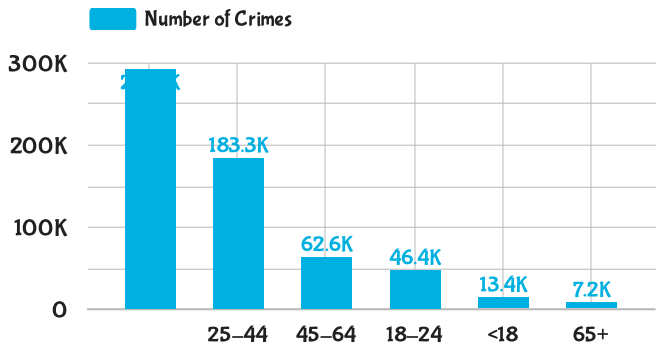

Borough Name

When night falls, NYC sees its sharpest crime rise—petit larceny and harassment lead the charge. Caught in the middle are 25–44 year-olds, most often as both victim and suspect. It's not just a threat—it's real: most crimes reach completion.

Crime Victim Distribution by Age Group

Crime Suspect Distribution by Age Group

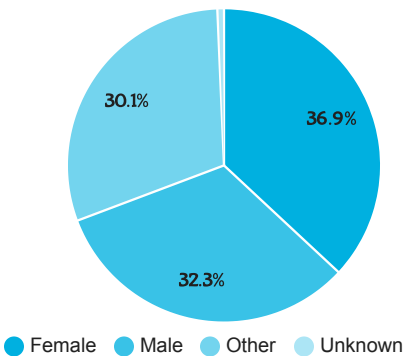

Female Victim Count

223,150

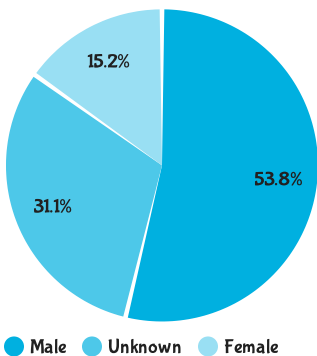

Total Crimes

604,141

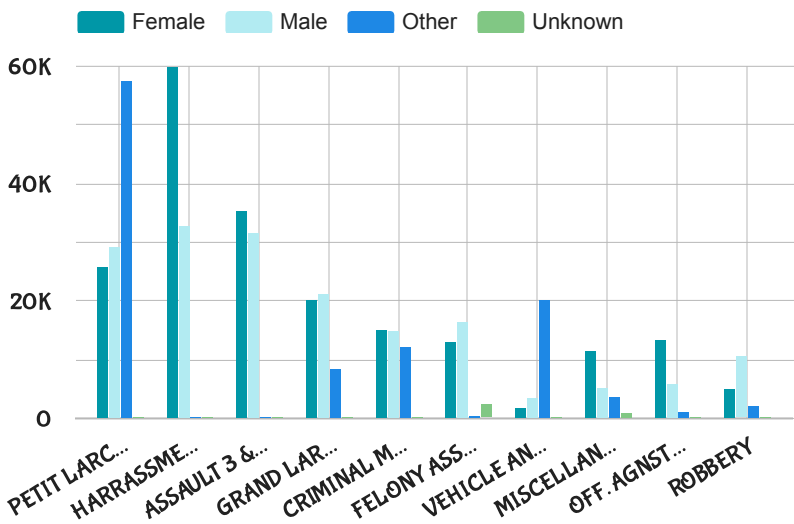

Crime Victim Gender Distribution

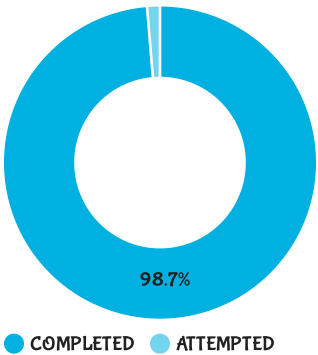

Crime Suspect Gender Distribution

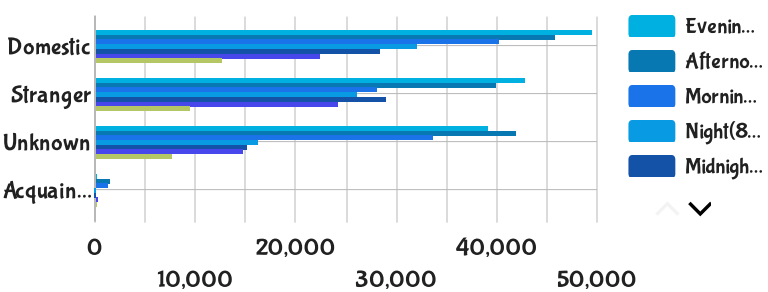

Offense Categories Across Gender Groups

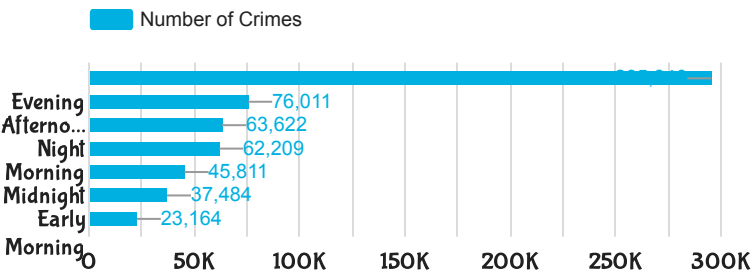

Crime Completion Status: Attempted vs Completed

Contextual Relationship Behind Reported Crimes

Crime Timing Trends Among Male Suspects

New York City Crime Analytics Board

Where Crime Happens: A Spatial Perspective

Where Crime Happens in NYC

From the bustling streets to quiet residences, this map uncovers where danger concentrates. Chain stores and transit hubs emerge as key hotspots, with female victims more affected in specific borough zones.

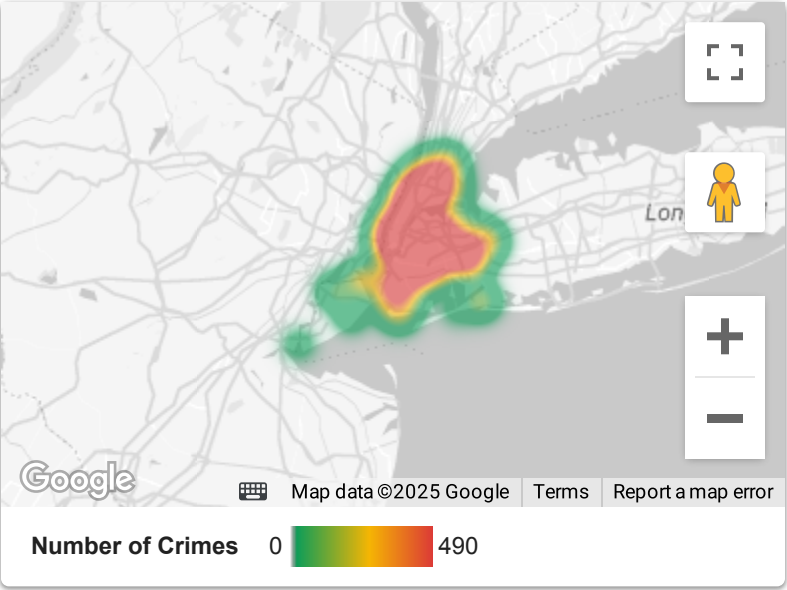

Borough Name

Offense Descriptio... (1)

Weekday

Law Category Code

Crime Density Hotspots Across NYC

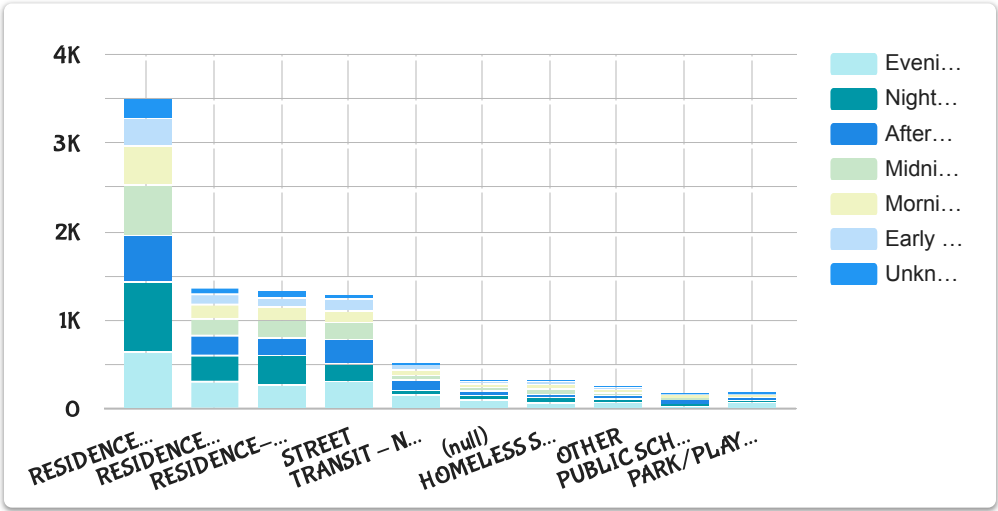

Top Premises with Highest Crime Incidence

	Premises ...	Number of Crimes
1.	RESIDE...	3,489
2.	RESIDE...	1,344
3.	RESIDE...	1,309
4.	STREET	1,266
5.	TRANSI...	487
6.	(null)	301
7.	HOMEL...	299
8.	OTHER	234
9.	PUBLIC	156

Transit Districts by Reported Crime Volume

	Transit district name	Number of Crimes
1.	Unknown or Non-Transit Crime	9,811
2.	District 4 – South Bronx	124
3.	District 20 – North Queens	90
4.	District 2 – Midtown Manhattan	52
5.	District 1 – Lower Manhattan	45
6.	District 33 – Transit Borough ...	34
7.	District 12 – South Brooklyn	31

Crime Timing Patterns by Location Type

Geographic Spread of Crimes Involving Female Victims

